

Economics 1036
Fall 2021

Matthew Rabin
HBS and Economics Department
Harvard University

Information Sheet

Please fill this out this information sheet if you want to be considered for the course, even if you are uncertain whether you will register or continue.

NAME _____
(Include both name as it appears on transcripts, etc., and as you preferred to be addressed. Please include pronunciation help if you think it might be helpful.)

Preferred e-mail address (printed clearly) _____

Assign an exact probability between 0 and 100% that you will be registered for the course as of January 27?

Assign an exact probability between 0 and 100% that, if you are admitted to the course by January 21 that you will be registered for the course as of January 27?

If you have not already emailed a cv/resume and an unofficial transcript to Professor Rabin, please do so and fill out any information below that is not completely clear from your transcript.

Economic theory courses taken, grades

Statistics, econometrics, and math courses taken, grades

Psychology courses taken, grades

Other courses taken that you feel might be relevant

Additional (optional) questions continued on the reverse side

What stage are you at (e.g., sophomore, junior)?

If you were a key on your keyboard or a known or possible transcendental number, what key on your keyboard or known or possible transcendental number would you be? What key on your keyboard or known or possible transcendental number would you want to be? Explain.

The remaining questions are optional.

Do you have plans for after college?

Do you have any topics potentially related to the seminar that you are especially interested in?

Do you have any research projects in mind (related or unrelated to this seminar)? Do you have any past research experience?

Add any additional comments that you think might be relevant (e.g., what you intend to get out of the seminar, your background, concerns you have).