

Economics 1036
“Spring” 2021

Matthew Rabin
HBS and Economics Department
Harvard University

Information Sheet

Please fill this out this information sheet if you want to be considered for the course, even if you are uncertain whether you will register or continue.

NAME _____
(Include both name as it appears on transcripts, etc., and as you preferred to be addressed. Please include pronunciation help if you think it might be helpful.)

Preferred e-mail address (printed clearly) _____

Assign an exact probability between 0 and 100% that you will be registered for the course as of January 28?

Assign an exact probability between 0 and 100% that, if you are admitted to the course by January 24 that you will be registered for the course as of January 28?

If you have not already emailed a cv/resume and an unofficial transcript to Professor Rabin, please do so and fill out any information below that is not completely clear from your transcript. In each category, please also include courses (and flag them as such) that you anticipate taking this term.

Economic theory courses taken, grades

Statistics, econometrics, and math courses taken, grades

Psychology courses taken, grades

Other courses taken that you feel might be relevant

Additional questions continued below

What stage are you at (e.g., sophomore, junior)?

If you were (choose one) a reason to miss a train or a river from around the world, what reason to miss a train or river from around the world would you be? What reason to miss a train or river from around the world would you want to be? Explain.

The remaining questions are optional.

Do you have plans for after college?

Do you have any topics potentially related to the seminar that you are especially interested in? (Including any related research projects you've started or thought about.)

Have you had any jobs, research projects, or courses that you feel are related to this seminar?

Add any additional comments that you think might be relevant (e.g., what you intend to get out of the seminar, your background, concerns you have).